

Drawing Exercise: The team today

Instructions Draw a picture that would convey to a young child what the working dynamics of your team looks like today. Please use the following for your metaphor:

- A form of transportation, communication or common process or procedure in your industry.

Where are you and your team members in this picture? How is this representative of your team today? Comment on the emotional tone of the picture? Would you like the picture to be different in the future? How?
